

Rebel Arrogance—An Order.

HEAD-QUARTERS U. S. FORCES.

Columbia, Tenn., Nov. 15 1863.

CIRCULAR.

It having been represented at these Head Quarters that certain families, with supercilious and arrogant effrontry, are in the habit of indulging in expressions of censure towards those who extend courtesies to the officers and soldiers of this command:

Notice is hereby given that any person or family residing in Columbia, or within a circuit of five miles thereof, who shall be guilty of upbrading any one for such courtesies, for the expression of Union sentiments, or who shall exhibit any public sympathy with the rebellion, or with confederate prisoners at this post, shall be sent south of the Tennessee river.

By order of

COL. HENRY R. MIZNER.

Commanding Post.

A. E. MAGILL,

Capt. and A. A. G.
